1. The Soviets have been considering certain concessions that are to be made to Germany, either at the Summit Conference in Geneva, or, which is more likely, at direct Soviet-German discussions which would follow the conference.<sup>1</sup> 25X1
2. A Polish delegation, led by Jozef Cyrankiewicz, was in Moscow at the beginning of June to discuss the possibility of border corrections along the Polish-German border.<sup>2</sup> Anastas I. Mikoyan told the delegates that the first concessions would probably be limited to Stettin (Szczecin) and Breslau (Wroclaw).
3. When Nikita S. Khrushchev and Nikolay A. Bulganin were on their way back from Belgrade, Czechoslovak Communist leaders, headed by Antonin Novotny, were summoned to meet with the Soviets in Bucharest. The Czechs were told to make preparations for indemnifying the Sudeten Germans and to set up a special fund for this purpose.
4. This has caused much agitation in Prague. The proposal would mean a further serious burden upon the creaking economy of Communist Czechoslovakia. Worse than that, the Czechoslovak comrades are beginning to wonder how much further the Soviet protectors may be prepared to go at Czechoslovakia's expense.

1.   Comment: This report was prepared prior to the opening of the Geneva Conference. 25X1
